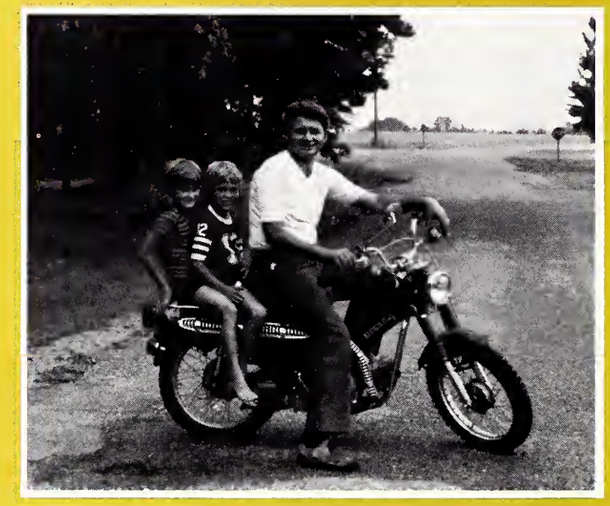
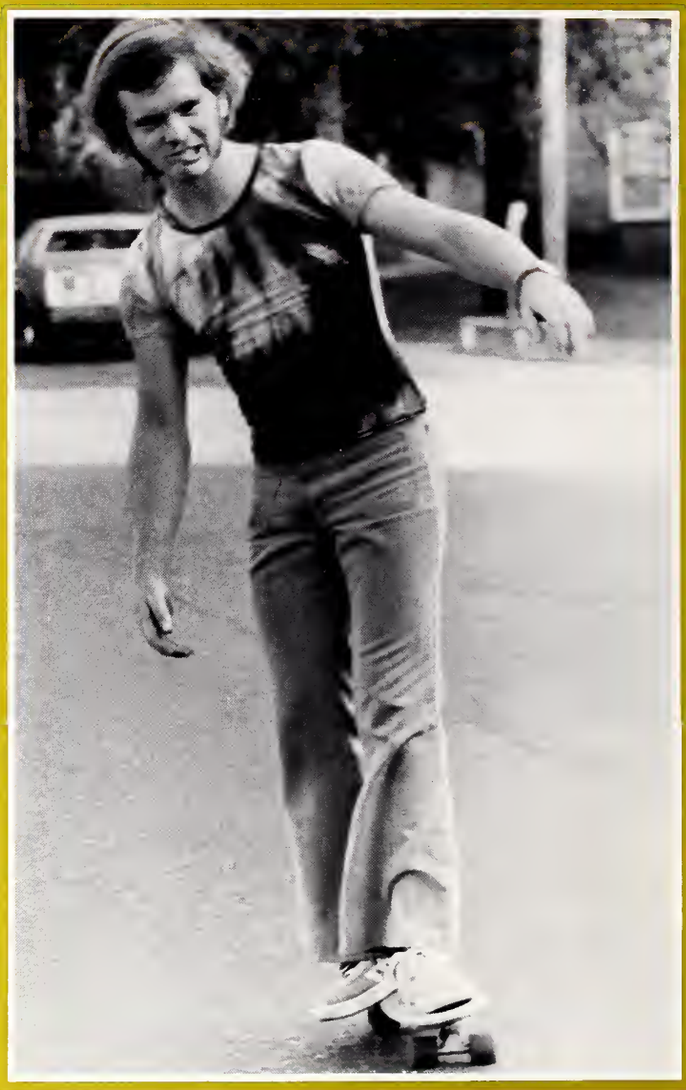
1977-78 Trillium presents "The Life and Times of CLJC"





To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven.

Ecclesiastes 3:1

Oh! The long lines of registering
Beginners and veterans.
Picnics and skateboarding . . .
but before long the routine is set,
and studying becomes necessary.
The pace is picking up.

"Never before have we had so little time to do so much."
Franklin Roosevelt

One day it isn't and the next day it's spring!
The drill field is flying with flags.
Suddenly spring showers.
There's a change in the air
and a change in attitudes.
It's hard to keep off
the roof or the courts . . .
but priorities first.
Finals are approaching.

Time is like a river made up of events which happen,
and its current is strong;
no sooner does anything appear than it is swept away, and another comes in its place,
and will be swept away.

Marcus Arelius Antoninus

The next day, fall's whirlwind grasps the unaware.
The golden beauty is stretched

And just as quickly as the earth is jacketed with colors and activities —
There will be relief . . .
The holidays are coming.

CLJC

FLYING HIGH

The time which we have at our disposal every day is elastic; the passions that we feel expand it, those we inspire contract it; and habit fills up what remains.

Marcel Proust

ON SIGNAL
AHEAD

Winter falls and a new year dawns.
It's a time to bundle up for the cold,
or to seek refuge in a warm spot . . .
The rec hall, the grill, or a dorm room.
Days are quickened by the long, frosty nights.
The deafening whistle of the north wind blows a new beauty to the campus.

TIME IS

Too Slow for those who Wait,
Too Swift for those who Fear,
Too Long for those who Grieve,
Too Short for those who Rejoice,
But for those who Love,
Time is eternity.

Henry van Dyke

Dr. Billy Thames spends much time working for CLJC

Dr. Billy B. Thames as president of the Copiah-Lincoln Junior College District, spends much of his time working for the improvement of both the Wesson and Natchez campuses.

Dr. Thames holds the B.S., M.S., and Ed.D. degrees from the University of Southern Mississippi. A honor graduate of Copiah-Lincoln, he was selected to its first annual Hall of Fame in 1954.

An outstanding educator, he is active in the Copiah-Lincoln and National Education Associations and the Mississippi Association of Educators; serves on the executive committee for the Mississippi Association of School Administrators; is a past president of the Mississippi Adult Education Association; a member of Phi Delta Kappa and the Red Red Rose; and the Mississippi Junior College Faculty Association.

Dr. Thames is currently serving his second year as chairman of the Mississippi Junior College Association. He is currently serving as vice chairman of the executive committee for the Mississippi Council for the Improvement of Education.

A past president, he is active in the Wesson Lions Club and is currently tail twister and a member of the board of directors. He has served as a member of the board of directors for Brookhaven Kiwanis Club. Further he is a member of the board of directors of the Bank of Wesson and for the State YMCA.

Other community activities include being a member of the advisory council for the Boy Scouts of America, and a member of the University of Southern Mississippi and Copiah-Lincoln Alumni Associations.

He is past chairman of the deacons of Wesson Baptist Church and a member of the board of directors. He teaches a Sunday School class and Church Training class and is a past director of Church Training.

Because of his outstanding contributions to education, he was selected as one of eight Outstanding Phi Theta Kappa Alumni in the United States for 1975, the announcement being made in Philadelphia, Pa. He was recognized by Mississippi College for Outstanding Service to Humanity in 1976. Copiah-Lincoln Alumni Association voted him Alumnus of the Year in 1970 and then in 1975 the Monticello-Lawrence County Chamber of Commerce recognized him for a special award of Contribution to Betterment of Life in Lawrence County, his home county.

Dr. Thames is married to the former Anne Allen and they are parents of three children, Rachel, Rebecca, and William Jr.

The Thames family consists of (left to right) Rebecca; Dr. Thames; Rachel; Mrs. Thames; and William.

My moods are many
as time goes along
There are times to take life seriously, as well as times to enjoy life to its fullest.

There were times to sit and think,
To reflect on the past and to look forward to the future.
Times to enjoy the pageantry of being dressed in a formal gown or a tux,
And to enjoy the reunion and entertainment that is Homecoming.

All in all . . .
The Life and Times of CLJC
have been good ones.
They are times that we will never forget,
And memories that we will always cherish.

Trillium dedication goes to B. F. Hunter

THE 1978 COPIAH-LINCOLN TRILLIUM IS DEDICATED TO . . .

. . . a man who received his A.A. degree from East Central Junior College, his B.S. and M.A. degrees from the University of Southern Mississippi, and who has done additional work at USM and at Mississippi College.

. . . a native of Decatur, Mississippi, who is married to Mrs. Lenora B. Hunter, a teacher at Wesson Elementary School. Their children are Mrs. Martha Carol Morrow and Alan Frank Hunter.

. . . a man who served for five years in the United States Army.

. . . a man who was principal of Monticello High School from 1946-1958.

. . . a man who came to Co-Lin in 1958 as registrar. He served in that capacity until 1964 when he became Dean of Instruction.

. . . a member of the Mississippi Junior College Faculty Association, Copiah-Lincoln Education Association, Mississippi Association of Educators, National Education Association, Mississippi Guidance Association, the Red Red Rose (an organization for school administrators), and the Wesson Lions Club, where he serves as director. He has represented the college on several boards and councils.

. . . a member of Decell Memorial Methodist Church, where he is a Sunday School teacher, lay leader, and member of the board.

. . . a person who has dedicated his life to young people, to the betterment of the community and his church, and to his family . . .

. . . a man who long after we leave Copiah-Lincoln we will remember for his helpfulness, friendly manner, and kind words.

IT IS WITH PRIDE AND PLEASURE THAT THE 1978 TRILLIUM EDITORS DEDICATE THIS YEARBOOK TO . . . MR. B. F. HUNTER

Commercial truck driving trains future truck drivers

Data processing students work with computers

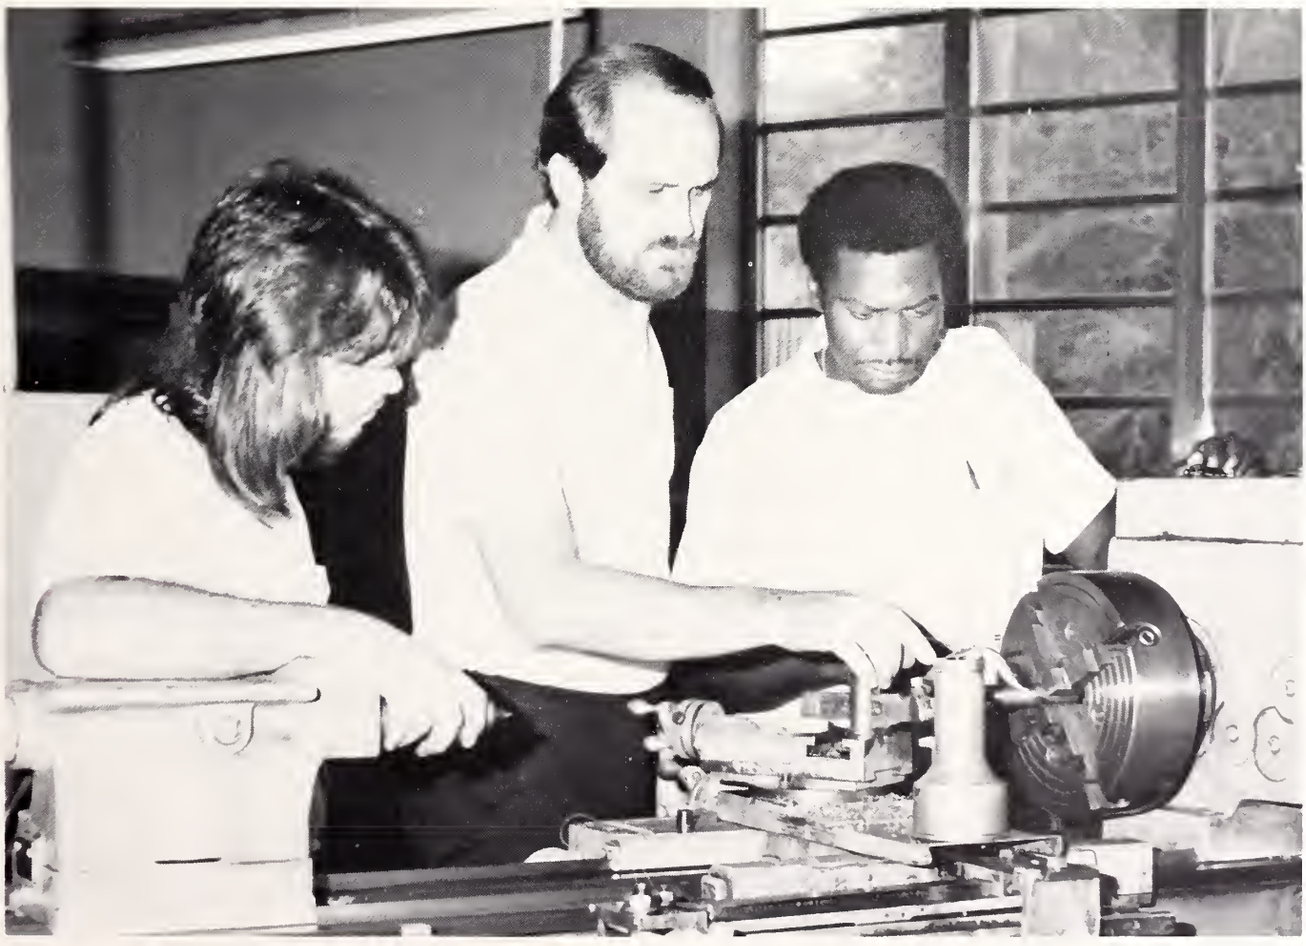
Secretarial science offers three program choices

CETA provides building construction program

Welding set as one year program

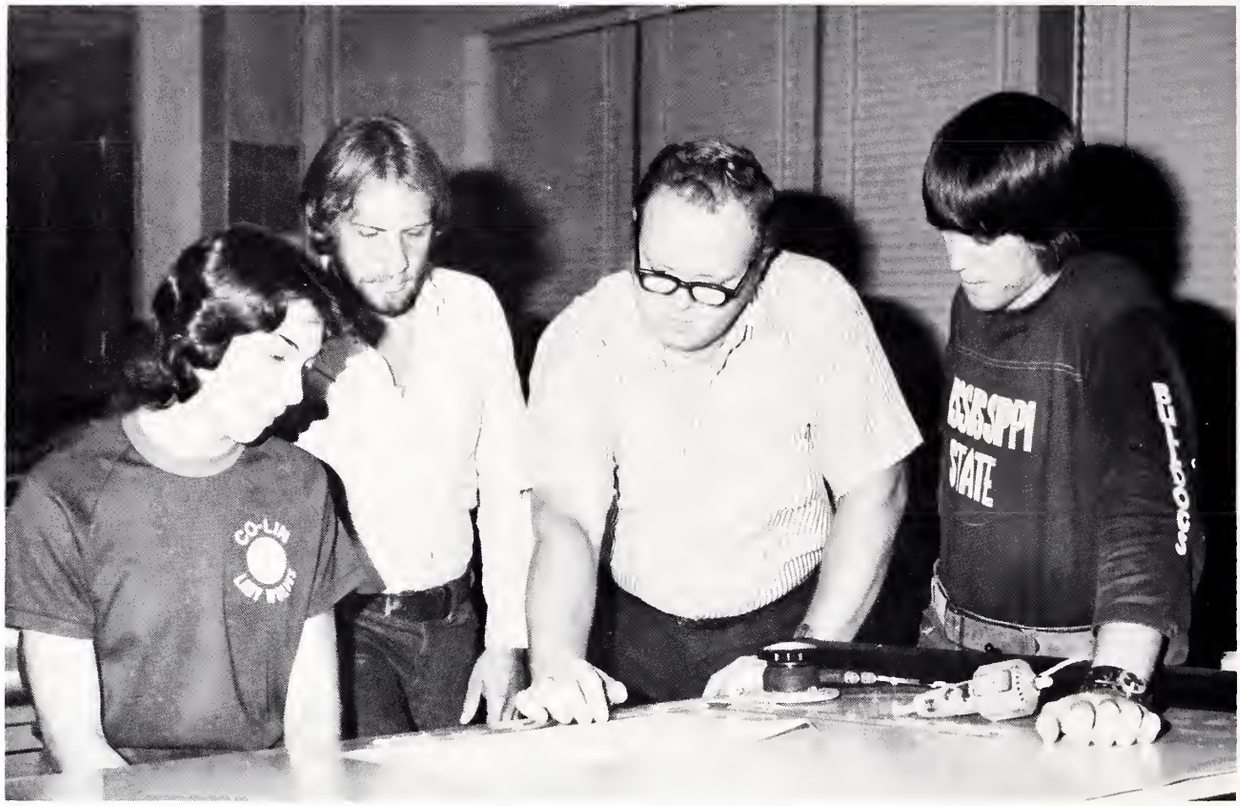
Air conditioning, heating, refrigeration enrolls many

Auto mechanics provides study of engines



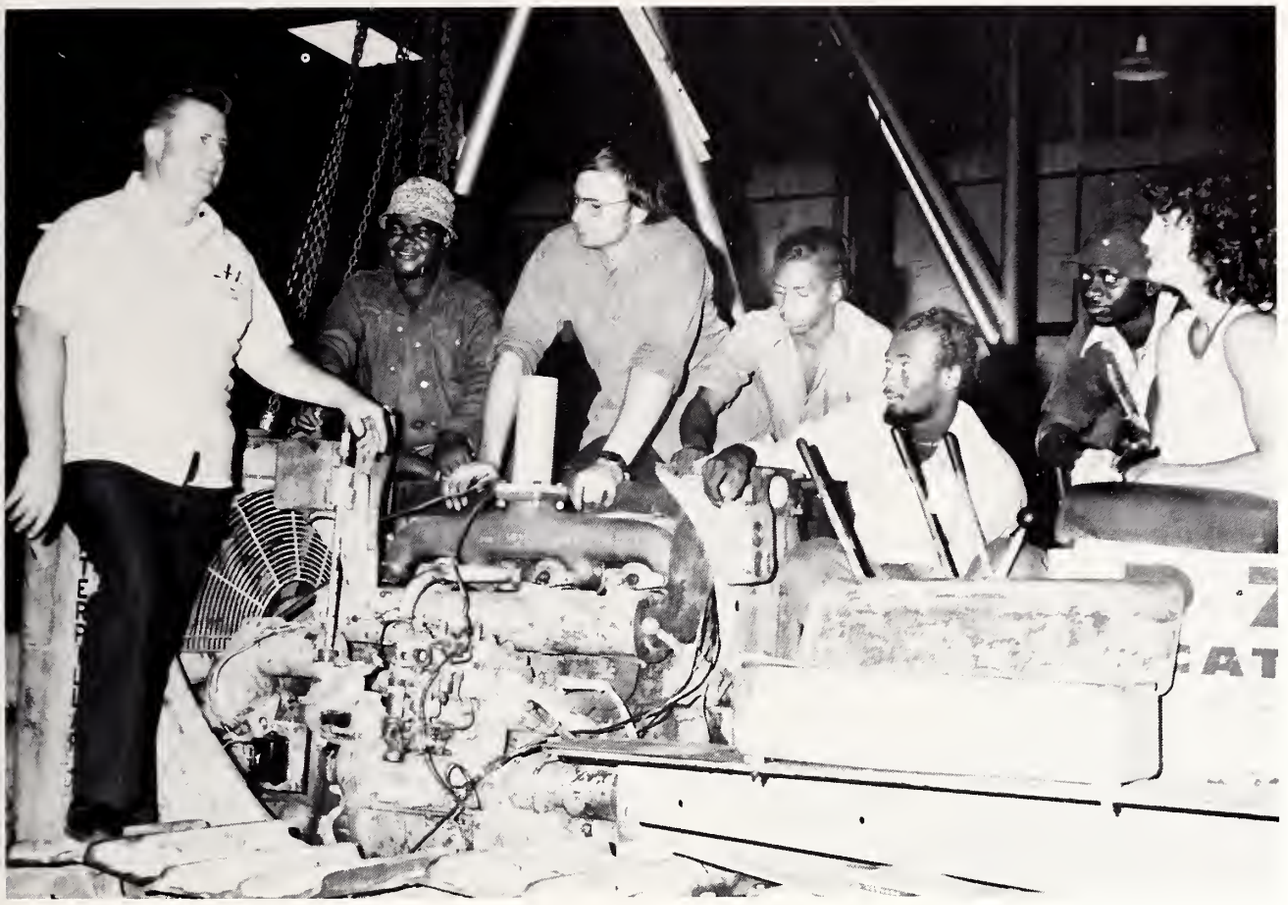
Machine shop teaches tool use, trains operators

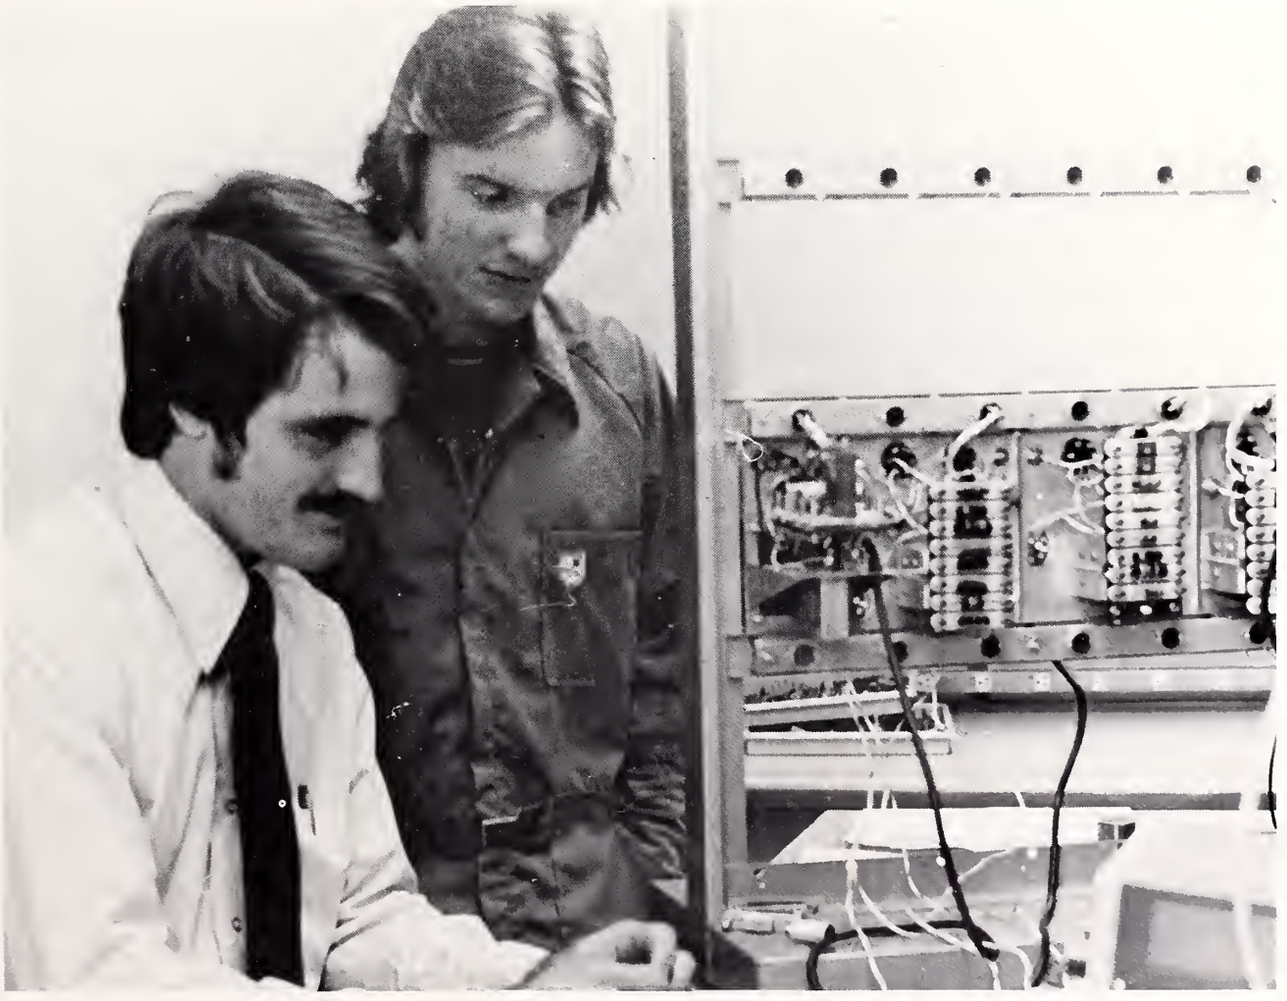
Drafting, design attracts many terminal students



Heavy equipment operator class proves popular

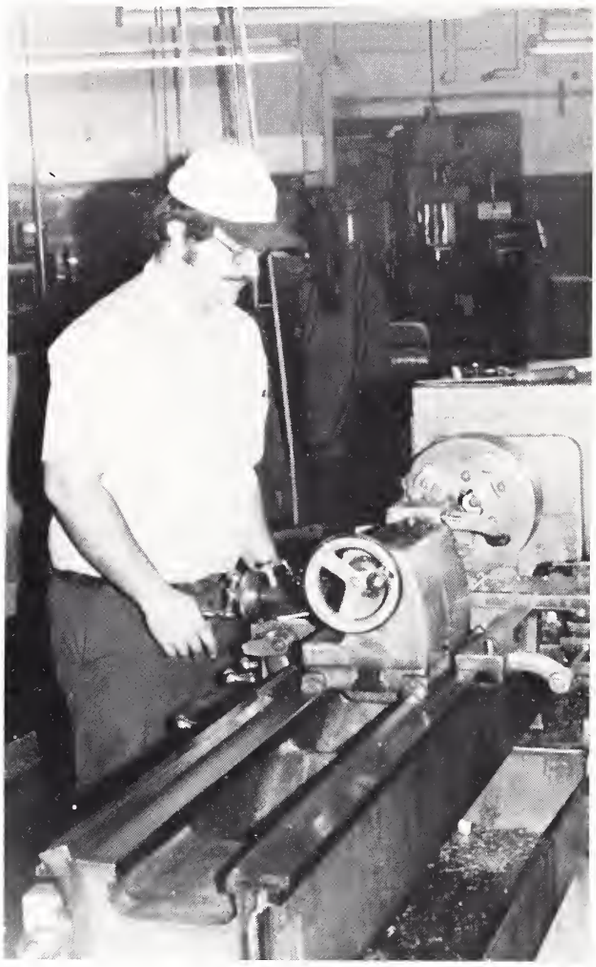
CLJC offers state's only heavy equipment mechanics program





Electronics technology leads to many fields

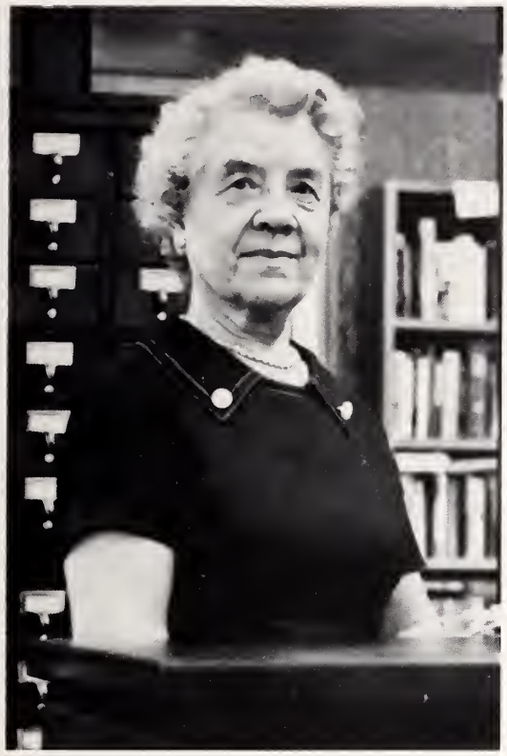
Several hundred attend Vo-Tech night classes, academic night courses, adult basic education



Several hundred adults enrolled in evening classes for non-credit offered by Copiah-Lincoln's vocational-technical division. Classes ranged from income tax preparation to cake decorating to machine shop and auto mechanics. Others included floral arrangement, data processing, air conditioning, drafting, electronics, Emergency Medical Technician, to name a few.

Attending academic night classes on campus, in Magee, Mendenall, Crystal Springs, Brookhaven, and Fayette were several hundred students, enrolling in a variety of courses. In addition, several hundred students enrolled in adult basic education, with Co-Lin having centers in ten locations throughout the district.

Senior AIDES assist public service agencies



Copiah-Lincoln Junior College is sponsoring agent for the SENIOR AIDES program in Southwest Mississippi. Six years ago, CLJC became the only college of any type in the United States to have such a program. The program here is one of three in the state and one of 50 in the nation. A federally-funded project, sponsored by the National Council of Senior Citizens through the cooperative efforts of the Department of Labor, the program is open to those 55 years of age or over who are unemployed or underemployed.

The program encompasses eleven Southwest Mississippi counties, including Adams, Amite, Copiah, Franklin, Jefferson, Lawrence, Lincoln, Pike, Simpson, Walthall, and Wilkinson.

Sixty Senior AIDES are employed by Copiah-Lincoln and work on our campus, at Southwest Mississippi Junior College, McComb, Magee, Mendenhall, Tylertown, Woodville, Natchez, Monticello, Bude, Brookhaven, Enterprise, Bogue Chitto, Magnolia, and several other towns. All aides work in service-agency type work.

Homecoming attracts several thousand

Shelby Pitts and Mrs. Ann Cagle accept Alumni of the Year awards from Tom Kelly, alumni president.

Tennis winners, Charlotte Creely and Ann Cagle.

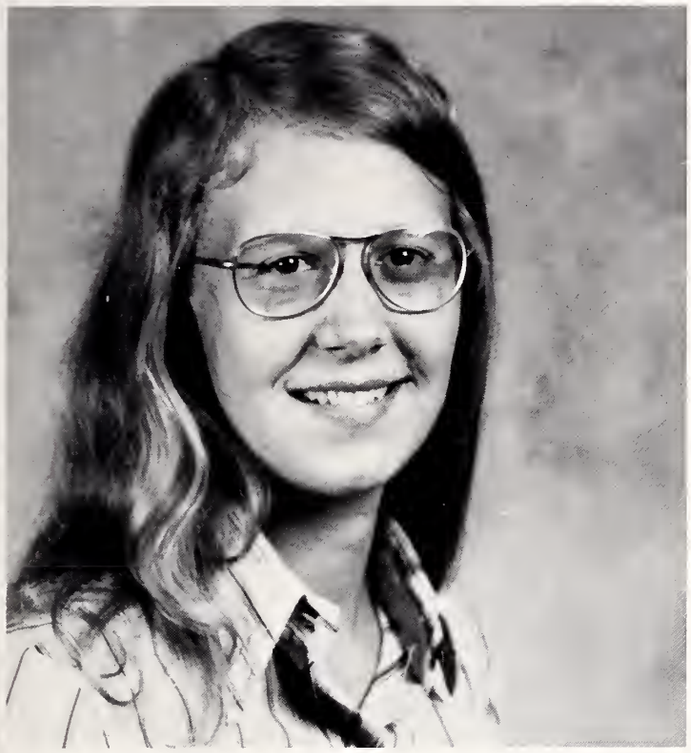
Mrs. Ernestine Armstrong Peck of Los Angeles traveled the farthest for homecoming activities.

New alumni officers (front, l to r) Mrs. Merle Furlow, secretary; Miss Evelyn Redd, president; W. C. "Pop" Allen, vice president; and Kelly, outgoing president.

Class of '26 celebrates its golden anniversary.

Golf tournament winners Mrs. Maxine Pickett, Dr. Robert Young, and Mrs. Lucy King.

Natchez campus selects Hall of Fame



Joan Loutheria Holland

Denise Moreland Lipsey

To be chosen to the Hall of Fame on Copiah-Lincoln Junior College's Natchez campus is the highest honor that can be given a student. Both sophomores are in line for graduation and have made outstanding contributions to campus life. The two chosen are for the first annual Hall of Fame selections.

College . . . A time to pull past, present, The Past

The fabled Natchez Indians began the civilized settlement of the oldest city on the Mississippi River, only to be disbanded in the early 1700's. The tangible evidence of their time in Natchez is being found and re-created at the Grand Village of the Natchez Indians, the state's first National Historic Landmark.

The Present

The timelessness of Old Man River, plied daily with steamboats, tugs, and lighter craft, makes all Natchezians aware of the great continuum of present time and its value.

The Future

Copiah-Lincoln Junior College, Natchez Campus, in its sixth year of operation in 1977-78, has great success with current students and hails the future as a challenge for further potential success.

The long, long halls lead to lifetime enrichment through learning.

Those first class meetings aren't so bad, and new friends made at college help a lot.

Kim Guice, with pencil, notebooks, and computer standing by, hits the books for that first big test.

Varied class offerings appeal to Benjy Anderson and Joan Holland enjoy listening to classical music in the special carrels in the music department.

Dissecting is the name of the game in the science department. Regenia Fleming looks and listens as Mr. John Bullen instructs.

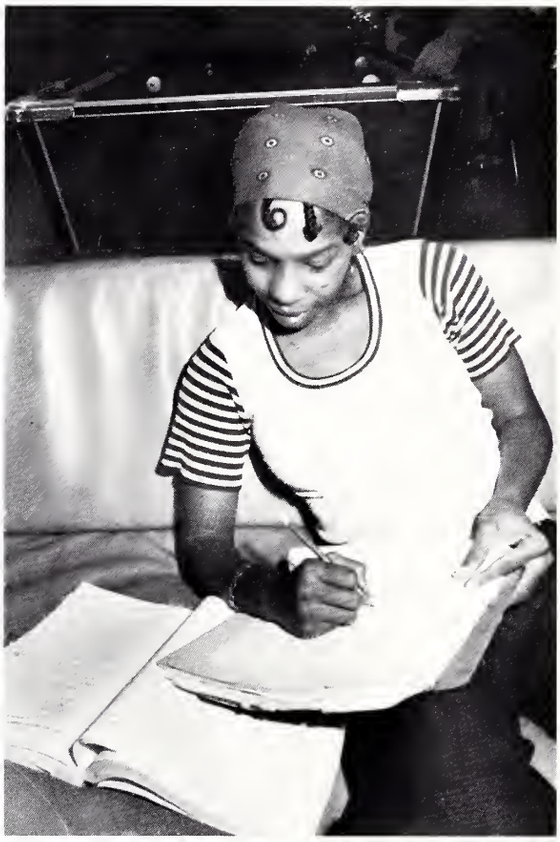
Sister Mary Pardy joined the faculty this year and instituted a new individualized reading program for those students needing help.

all students, day and evening

Sign-making is just one of the many areas of instruction in Distribution and Marketing Technology. Lauren Thomae and Vera Dunmore investigate the latest techniques.

Practice makes perfect in almost every area. Brenda Greene well agrees in typing, as she practices after class at the all-electric executive typewriter in the secretarial science department.

Campus activities include studying,



Louvenia Thomas' does a quick bit of studying before class.

Mary Ann Butler works on a special typing homework assignment.

Carla Boykin and Beverly Alexander watch a favorite soap opera while grabbing a Hob Nob sandwich for lunch.

lounging, eating, just goofing off

Lee Arthur Guice is reading the daily newspaper before going to class.

Barney Poole models the latest in fashions on the front campus.

Mary Chatman, Carl Scott, and Gwen Luster relax in the Hob Nob with a soft drink before the bell for class.

Life on campus includes traveling,

The new campus van took student groups to view the King Tut exhibit in New Orleans, to Wesson meetings, and to area conventions.

Becky Rankin, Dean's Secretary, and Joan Holland, Bookstore Manager, assisted with the annual Open House in October, when current and prospective students viewed the campus.

open house, visiting, relaxing

Mr. Robert Burns, Economics and Accounting Instructor, enjoys a good pool game between classes.

Mr. Robert Lamar Winstead, enjoying prize specimens from his flower garden, shares his hobby with the Co-Lin/Natchez campus, where he tends a rose garden and pampers other flower beds.

Faculty, students work, play

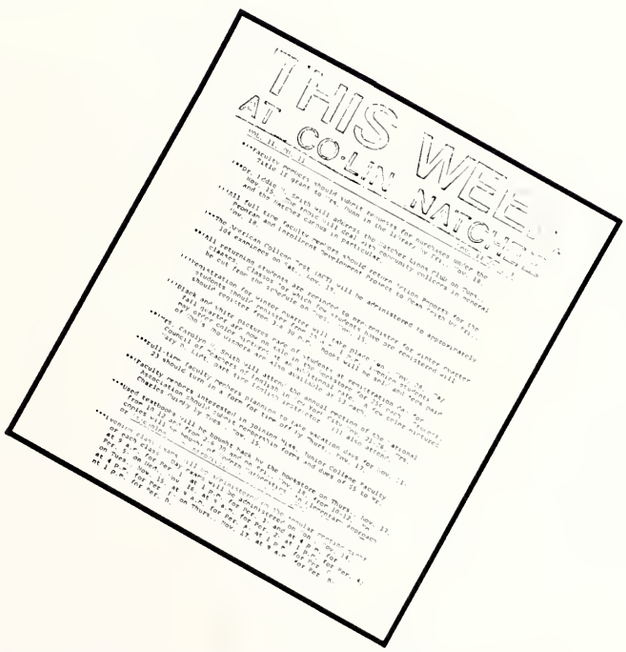
Mrs. Charlotte Smith, left, and Mrs. Alice O'Brien rehearsed long hours for the Bach Christmas Oratorio performed in December and televised by Mississippi Educational Television.

Mr. Joey Paul, Instructor of Math, goes over a complicated problem with his class in reviewing for exams.

on campus twelve months a year

Mrs. Diane Martello, Mrs. Dorothy Wheat, Mr. Lamar Winstead, Mr. John Bullen, and Mrs. Diane Payne share a break from class in the Faculty Lounge.

Mr. Don Marion and Mr. Rick Anderson, part-time faculty members, relax before their evening class session.



"This Week" is a weekly publication on campus, distributed free to inform students and faculty of campus items and events of interest.

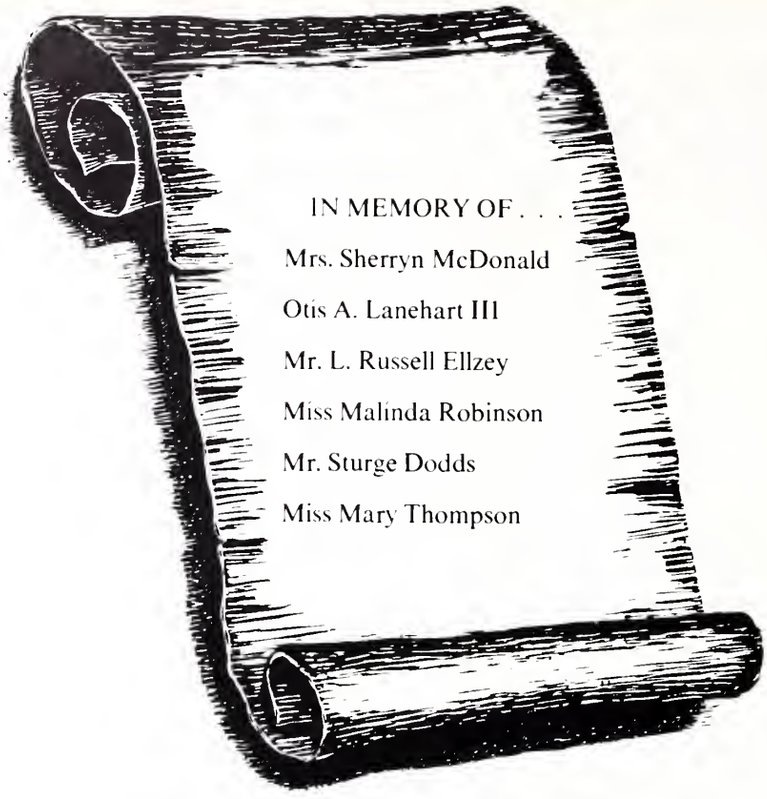
Fall turns to winter — finally to spring time

For every season, there is a time . . .



Mrs. Sherryn W. McDonald, 1943-1977, an instructor in English and secretarial science on the Natchez campus.

Mr. L. Russell Ellzey, Co-Lin's first president.

Otis A. Lanehart III
February 27, 1953 — December 3, 1977
Natchez campus sophomore

Copiah-Lincoln Junior College's Wesson and Natchez campuses were saddened by the deaths of a faculty member, a student, the college's first president, two board members, and a retired faculty member.

Russell Ellzey was instrumental, along with others, in establishing Copiah-Lincoln Junior College and he served as its first president from 1928-1932. His death came in December, 1977, following a long illness.

Mrs. Sherryn McDonald, a Natchez campus instructor, was murdered in late September, and a Natchez campus student, Otis Lanehart III, died as a result of a hunting accident in early December.

Board members Miss Malinda Robinson of Natchez and Mr. Sturge Dodds of Crystal Springs, both of whom had given immeasurable service to this institution, passed away during the year. A long-time faculty member who was retired, Miss Mary Thompson, died in December.

Their passing leaves us sad and broken hearted.
